WHY IS TATA MOTORS BREAKING UP?

TATA Motors, one of the biggest automobile firms in India, is planning to divide its current business into Passenger Vehicles (PV) and Commercial Vehicles (CV).

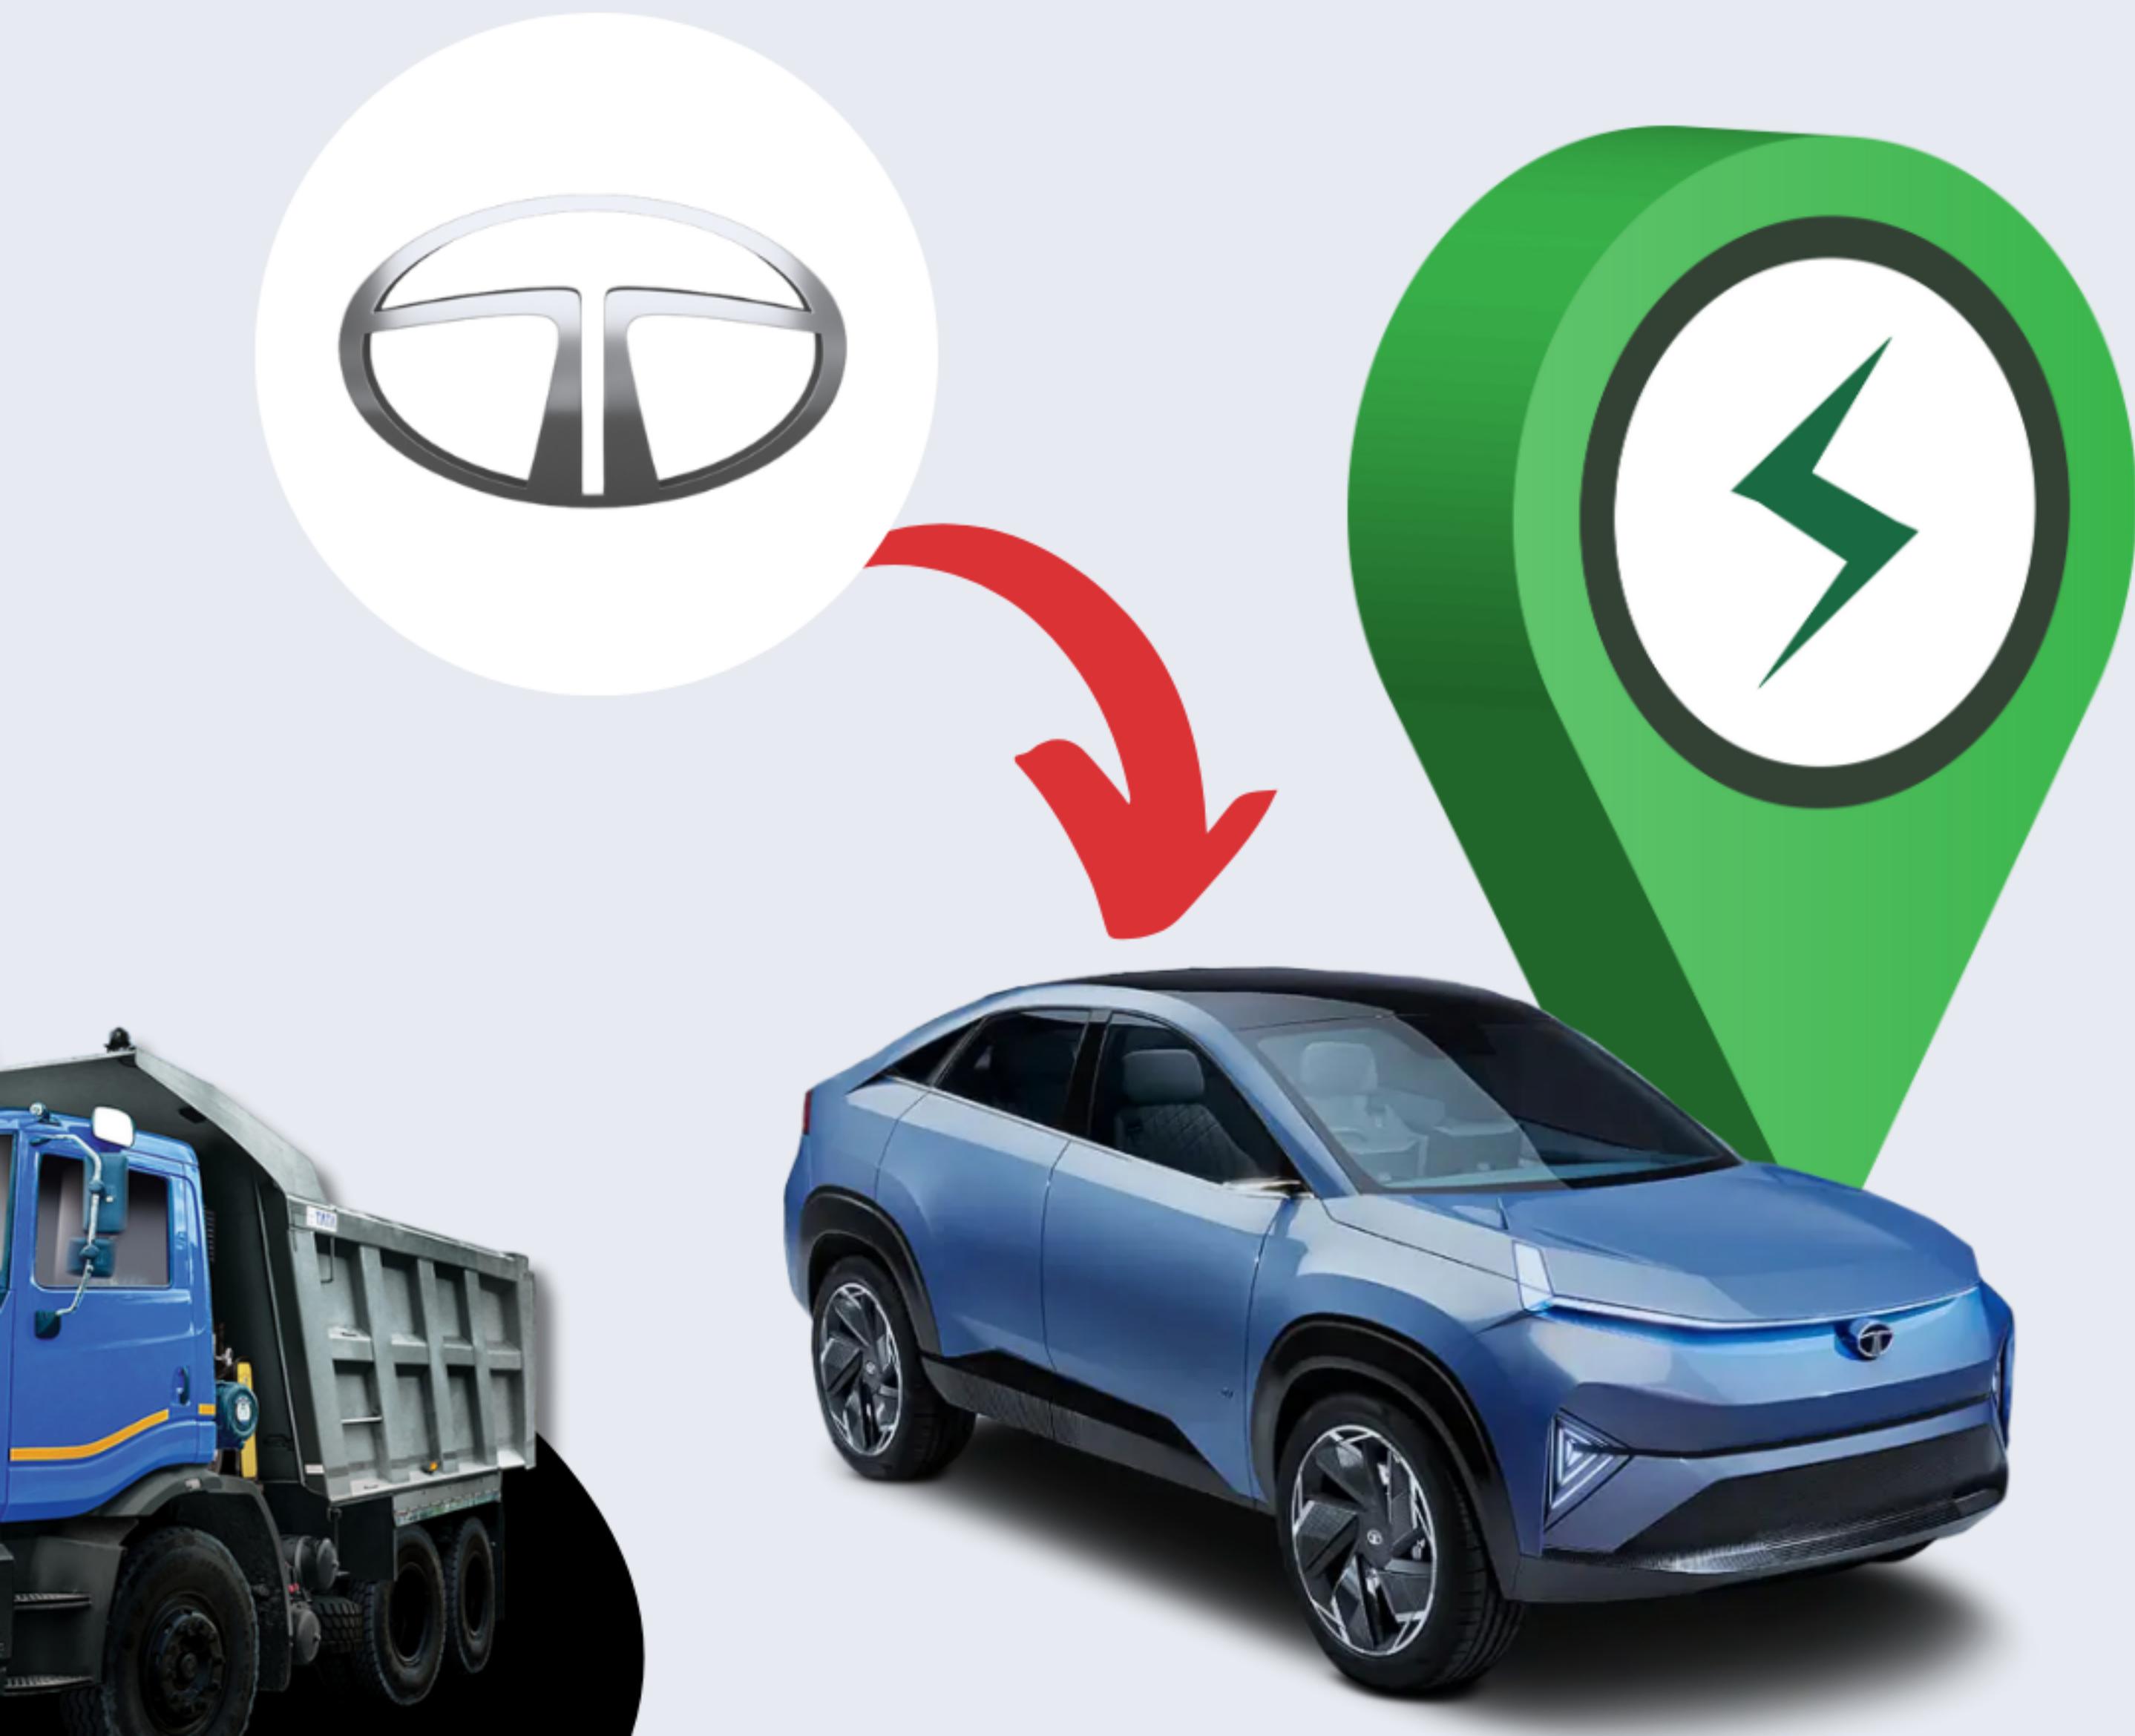

The passenger vehicle segment will focus on its passenger cars, such as hatchbacks, sedans, and SUVs, as well as the electric vehicle (EV) and the Jaguar Land Rover (JLR) business.

Meanwhile, the Commercial Vehicle division will focus on Trucks, Construction Vehicles, and Military Vehicles. TATA's CV division is the biggest in India.

It will clarify each business segment, allowing for more targeted investments and growth strategies. The EV sector, in particular, is poised for significant growth and requires dedicated resources.

The demerger plan needs to be approved by the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) and regulatory bodies. The process is expected to take around 12-15 months.
